Polzad's Problem.

"The chief problem in Poland from our point of view is the devasted slons of the convention proper durthe refugees pouring over the eastern frontier from Russia. There is also considerable suffering in the big industrial centers.

"But the A. R. A. by feeding the starving during the worst period, has definitely established the claims of the children at least on the public. Our work, in short, made possible the passing of the recent legislation by which 400,000 children will be fed by the Polish government and communes until next October and 300,000 until the following June.

"The Polish committee, which will handle the work after the A. R. A withdraws, is headed by Wladislaw Grabski, former Minister of Finance.

"Many Poles regard this organization as the most efficient body operating in the country. It is entirely independent of political parties, and it is the intention of the Poles to

If You Holiday in

Holiday! Say it in leghorn, in ribbon, in straw. in felt. HOLIDAY! Say it in giddy currants, in luscious cherries, in flirty ribbons, in floating scarfs, in bizarre gray gardenias, in glowing wheat, in illies piled high or lilacs or primroses or humble daisies or one proud poppy or embroidery or lace. Holiday! Say it with hats. With new hats. With smart hats. With gay hats. With "cheerful-black" hats. And big hats and little hats and happy-medium hats. Holiday hats. Light as holiday spirits. Bright as holiday sweaters. And oh! what a holiday from prohibitive prices!
